
Helping a beloved start-up pivot in real-time.

The Challenge

Type Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit.

Shyp is one of the leading start-ups in the on-demand economy. The company helps take the hassle out of shipping by allowing customers in New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and San Francisco to summon a courier to their doorsteps to pick-up, pack and ship items all through an app.

Junior helped Shyp scale up its business and go nationwide with a new product — "the Kayak of shipping"; — and self-service website that appeals to both consumers, small businesses and enterprise customers.
